

PICK N PAY

HEALTHYFOOD CATALOGUE

Discover healthy living!

Discovery Vitality brings you the HealthyFood benefit to help you make healthy food choices when shopping at Pick n Pay.

The selection criteria for the list of foods in this catalogue were compiled by a team of nutrition and health experts, and include the latest dietary guidelines. These guidelines, which include the most recent scientific evidence, help to address dietary practices that are associated with chronic lifestyle-related diseases such as heart disease and type 2 diabetes.

In addition to the quality of food, the quantity of food also plays a significant role in terms of your health. Portion sizes, from packaged foods to restaurant meals, have increased significantly over the last few decades. While kilojoule control is important, it can only go so far – living a healthy lifestyle depends on combining smart eating with the right amount of physical exercise on a regular basis.

IMPORTANT POINTS TO REMEMBER WHEN USING THIS CATALOGUE

Products listed in this catalogue are subject to seasonal and supplier availability, and may only be available at certain Pick n Pay stores. Vitality bases its principles on the most current policies and guidelines from local and international bodies.

No collaborations were formed with suppliers or manufacturers and items were chosen based on evidence-based criteria, independent of the brand they represented. Any person using information in this catalogue does so at his or her own risk and waives any right to action against the Discovery group of companies (Discovery) or Pick n Pay retailers (Proprietary) Limited (Pick n Pay). Such a person indemnifies Discovery, Pick n Pay, and their employees, agents, subcontractors and suppliers against any claims for loss, damage to person or property, injury, liabilities, claims, sickness or death that may result from the use of or reliance on such information or from any other cause whatsoever suffered either by such person or by any third party. The product selection process is constantly under review, and we change the product list according to advancements in research, clinical practice and the industry. Recipe

Roasted asparagus and tomato salad

15 medium rosa tomatoes
1 tbsp olive oil
1 clove garlic, crushed
2 sprigs thyme
1 tbsp basil, roughly chopped
1 tbsp white wine vinegar
10 asparagus spears, trimmed
1 tbsp rocket, finely chopped
1/2 tbsp parmesan cheese, grated to serve
Ground black pepper, to taste

METHOD

Preheat the oven to 180° Celsius.

Halve each tomato horizontally and put them, cut side up, on a baking sheet. Season with pepper, half of the crushed garlic and a sprig of thyme.

Cook for at least 30 to 40 minutes. The tomatoes should be slightly dehydrated, but still juicy, when you remove them from the oven.

Combine the basil, remaining garlic and half of the olive oil in a food processor. Place the basil mixture into a bowl and whisk in the vinegar. Season with freshly-ground black pepper.

Arrange the asparagus on a dish and drizzle with the remaining olive oil. Heat a griddle pan over a high heat and cook the asparagus for about 5 to 10 minutes, turning the spears every 1 to 2 minutes.

Return the asparagus to the dish, cover with cling film and leave to steam slightly.

Place the tomatoes on a serving plate. Top each of the tomatoes with the asparagus spears and a drizzle of the basil dressing. Serve with freshly-chopped rocket and sprinkle of parmesan cheese to garnish.

TIPS TO REDUCE PREPARATION AND COOKING TIME

- Use dried herbs instead of fresh herbs.
- Buy grated parmesan cheese.

PREPARATION TIME: 20 to 25 minutes

COOKING TIME: 40 to 50 minutes

Carbohydrate foods

Wholegrains and wholegrain products such as oats, wholegrain breads, porridge and brown rice are among the healthiest sources of carbohydrates. These provide a steady supply of energy to the body throughout the day. Including these foods helps improve your energy levels and your ability to perform everyday tasks. Apart from being a good source of carbohydrates, wholegrain also provide fibre, resistant starch, a number of vitamins and minerals, as well as beneficial phytochemicals. Local and international dietary guidelines recommend that at least half of the grains you eat be wholegrains. Wholegrains and high-fibre starchy foods low in salt, sugar and saturated fat are included in the HealthyFood benefit. Carbohydrate foods should meet all of the below criteria to be included:

- At least 6g of fibre per 100g
- No more than 1.5g of saturated fat per 100g
- No more than 5g of total sugar per 100g
- The sodium (salt) content of breads, cereals, porridges and crackers should align with government regulations:
 - Bread: no more than 380mg sodium per 100g
 - Cereals and porridges: no more than 400mg sodium per 100g
 - Crackers: no more than 700mg sodium per 100g
 - Other carbohydrate foods: no more than 600mg sodium per 100g

Wild rice, chickpea and chicken salad

- 1/2 cup wild rice, cooked
- 1 large tomato
- 2 tsp lemon juice, freshly squeezed
- 2 tsp balsamic vinegar
- 1 tbsp olive oil
- 1/2 tin chickpeas, canned, rinsed and drained
- Large packet rocket, rinsed and drained
- 2 tbsp flat leaf parsley, finely chopped
- 2 small skinless chicken breasts
- Ground black pepper, to taste

METHOD

Cook the wild rice according to the packet instructions.

Cut the chicken breast into bite-sized pieces and pan fry in a non-stick pan with fresh lemon juice. Cook the chicken pieces until they are golden brown. Remove the chicken from the heat and allow to cool.

Chop the tomatoes and put them in a bowl. Season well with freshly-ground black pepper, then add the vinegar and olive oil.

Toss several times to make sure the tomatoes are well coated in the vinaigrette. Add the rice, chicken and chickpeas. Toss once more.

Arrange the rocket and parsley on a serving platter. Spoon the rice salad over and serve.

TIPS TO REDUCE PREPARATION AND COOKING TIME

- Extra salad can be made in advance and eaten the following day.

Protein foods

Protein foods are an important part of a healthy diet as they provide nutrients that are essential for your health and the maintenance of your body. Guidelines recommend including a variety of protein foods that are nutrient-dense and lower in saturated fat such as skinless chicken and turkey, ostrich, fish, seafood, tofu and eggs.

Recipe

Chicken and broccoli frittata

1/2 cup broccoli, cut into florets
1 baby onion, finely chopped
1 large chicken breast fillet, skinless, boiled
1 medium egg
1/2 cup milk, fat free
Ground black pepper, to taste

METHOD

Preheat the oven to 180° Celsius.

Bring a small amount of water to the boil in a heavy based saucepan.

Add the broccoli and cook for 5 to 8 minutes until tender, then drain into a colander.

Divide the broccoli, chicken and onion into a non-stick muffin tray according to the number of servings needed.

Beat the egg and milk together in a jug. Season the egg mixture generously with freshly-ground black pepper, then pour the mixture over the broccoli, onion and chicken.

Bake for 15 to 20 minutes or until golden. Loosen the edges of the frittatas then turn out.

Serve with a green salad and enjoy.

TIPS TO REDUCE PREPARATION AND COOKING TIME

- Make extra frittatas and freeze them. They can be defrosted and enjoyed as a convenient meal later.

Recipe

Minted pea and pistachio pesto

- 1 cup peas, cooked
- 1 tbsp mint and basil, chopped
- 9 whole pistachio nuts, raw, crushed
- 1 tsp olive oil
- 2 tsp lemon juice, fresh

METHOD

Combine the cooked peas, pistachio nuts, basil and mint in a blender and blend to desired consistency.

Add the lemon juice and olive oil.

Season and serve spooned on high fibre crackers or toasted rye bread.

TIPS TO REDUCE PREPARATION AND COOKING TIME

- Use dried herbs instead of fresh herbs.
- Make extra pea pesto to keep in the fridge and enjoy it with other meals or as a snack.
- Simply microwave frozen peas for a few minutes and use those.

PREPARATION TIME: 3 to 5 minutes
